

Harmon Lindsay

Battle Creek Monday Mch 9th 1874

Bro. White

Your Letter relative to Bailey Mortgage your Money Matters. Willie's enclosed discharge of Mortgage I received by to days noon's Mail.

I have not had time to do any thing in the matter as yet but will try to do something about it to morrow.

It is now 6 o'clk P. M. and both the Adams & Battelle Presses have been running since 7 o'clock this morning on the Review. and it will take them till near noon to morrow to finish.

There is a meeting appointed for the Church this evening to take up the Woolsey matter relative to Lumber & the Directors.

I have been talking some with Sis Lockwood this afternoon and she says that Huldah Aldrich the Little Belden girl, ^{and} helping her in the folding Room & are a going to work with her through the vacation.

Marcus, I's Wife has gone to work again with in the folding Room.

Sis Lockwood says she seems much more pleasant & Churfull than when she was here before. Bro. Sawyer's Wife is also to work in the folding Room.

Bro. Lockwood says that he does not have more than half he would like to do.

Haste Harmon Lindsay