W. C. White: I have yours this morn'g about Lucinda May, my business &c, &c. If you leave California without closing my business, I shall go there and do it. Sell my horses for something, sell both my lenses and my meeting house. Sell my furniture. All is quiet here, no school, nothing to call you here. Take time and close up my business, and give Mary all the time she wants to make up her mind.

Your mother is doing nothing in writing, or on her books in any way. I am about through here, and shall wait one week from the time I sent for May by telegram, and if she does not come, and is not coming any soon we shall go to Colorado. Wallis send $100, and strong invitation for us to come.
James White.

P.S. May he that Church would purchase my house on corner of Castro & 11th, if I would take the Babcock house as part pay, Will Ed. live there if I will give him rent free?
