

April 17, 1913.

Mr. W. R. Tolman,
Long Shoals, Georgia.

Dear Brother:

With this I am sending to you the Bill of Lading covering shipment of dried fruit made to you on the 24th of March. This fruit comes to you as the gift of Mrs. E. G. White. We have included in this shipment fruit for Lurien Scott. I believe the packages are marked for you and Brother Scott, as they were intended, but in case the tags are lost, you may refer to the following as memoranda.

For W.R.Tolman, 50# prunes, 20# pears, 30# figs, 50# prunes.
For L. Scott, 10# peaches, 40# prunes, 30# figs, and 30# pears.

Trusting that the fruit may reach you in due time, and be of good use to you, and wishing you every blessing in your work, I am

Yours very truly,

W. C. White
