

Sanitarium, Cal.,

May 6, 1915.

Elder J. A. Burden,
Loma Linda, Cal.

Dear Brother Burden:

I think you are somewhat acquainted with Brother Harold Bree. His wife, Sister Maggie Hare-Bree, has been one of Mother's helpers for many years. Brother Bree was a dairyman in New Zealand. He sold some of his property and came over here, partly to see if California was a good place for him to settle, and partly to please his wife, who wished to connect again with Mother's work, and whose help we greatly needed and have greatly appreciated.

A few months ago Brother Bree entered into a contract with a supposedly wealthy woman in Oakdale to take charge of her dairy. She was owner of a dairy farm, and had erected some buildings, but had not purchased much stock. It seems now that her money has run short. She is changing her plans, and in a few weeks Brother Bree may be out of employment.

Brother Bree has in mind returning to New Zealand;
but many of his old friends are hoping that he can find employment in this country. Please tell us if you know of anything down your way that would be likely to interest him. Are you needing help in the Loma Linda Dairy?

Yours very truly,

W. C. White

WCW-f